Hazard Communication

❖ 29 CFR Subpart Z – Toxic and Hazardous Substances

❖ 1910.1200 – Hazard Communication

The Hazard Communication regulation requires employers develop, implement, and maintain a hazard communication program to protect their employees from the exposure to hazardous substances. Employers must train their employees on:

- ✓ Reading and interpret labels on substance containers
- ✓ Locating and understanding Safety Data Sheets
- ✓ What to do if they are exposed to a hazardous substance
